

Taiwan Adoption Expenses by Chronology

For Overseas Families (CCAI HS)

The cost of your Taiwan adoption will consist of both CCAI Service Fees and expenses paid to outside agencies for their services. One of the many benefits of CCAI's Taiwan adoption program is that the costs are clearly defined from the moment you begin your adoption journey. The adoption fees and costs are spread out over the course of the entire adoption process. Expenses paid to CCAI throughout the adoption (highlighted in BOLD below) will be about one-third of the overall adoption expenses. Below we have listed each expense necessary to complete your adoption, to whom it is paid, and when it is due. Each expense is identified by the Key and detailed in "Explanation of Non-CCAI Expenses".

† When you provide a check as payment, you authorize CCAI either to use information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your account or to process the payment as a check transaction. When we use information from your check to make an electronic fund transfer, funds may be withdrawn from your account as soon as the same day we receive your payment, and you will not receive your check back from your financial institution.

<sup>1</sup> The N-600K is applicable for families who do not immediately move back to the U.S. This is required to establish U.S citizenship for your adopted child.

Explanation of Non-CCAI Adoption Expenses For Overseas Families (CCAI HS)

1. The IAAME (Intercountry Adoption Accreditation and Maintenance Entity) is the newly authorized accrediting entity. They charge $500 per approved application where CCAI agrees to serve as the primary provider. (This fee is charged on a per child basis, if a family is adopting more than one child, IAAME will collect an additional $500 per child at the time of referral.)
2. The USCIS (United States Citizenship and Immigration Services) charges $775 at the time that you file the I-600A. Each person 17 years old or older in the household must be fingerprinted. $85 for each person to be fingerprinted should be included in the initial USCIS check or money order. The USCIS approval is valid for 18 months.
3. The Cathwel (In-Country) fee is $6,230 (wiring fee included) per child. If a family is adopting a sibling group and one or more of the children hold a disability card, the per child fee may be less.
4. The cost of dossier preparation varies depending on what your state charges for issuing birth and marriage certificates and for document authentication. The cost of documentation notarization may also vary depending on the notary. Each family has approximately 10 authenticated documents in their dossier. The $300 estimate reflects the average that families will spend compiling the adoption dossier.
5. Airfare to Taiwan may range from $1,200 - $1,500 per adult traveler for coach accommodations based on flights from your home airport during regular season travel. For children over two years old at time of travel, a “full one way ticket” (generally 75% of the price of adult ticket) is required.
6. Average in-Taiwan travel expenses are approximately $725 - $2,250 for two adults and the adopted child. This covers in-Taiwan travel (ground transportation), as well as hotel costs. The adoption trip/s usually takes one week, per trip, for a one or two trip process.
7. There may be an additional cost for a Taiwan driver/representative if a family chooses to be driven.
8. Your child’s visa to enter the US is $300 and will be paid by the orphanage.
9. The N-600K application fee is $1,170. This form is required to establish U.S. citizenship for a child adopted by a US citizen who is residing abroad.
10. The adoption will need to be validated after you return to the US. The cost is varied at different states and counties
11. Your child will need a birth certificate issued by the US State of your permanent residence. The cost is varied.

Financial Aid Application(s) & Administrative Assistance

CCAI is happy to support your family if you choose to seek financial aid through grant(s) to fund your adoption. Once you have researched and selected a grant organization(s) that you would like to apply to, CCAI will provide assistance in compiling requested agency documentation for as many grants as you choose to apply for throughout your adoption process. CCAI will provide the following services to you at no additional fee: 1) initially analyzing and verifying your adoption case position and stage in the adoption process; 2) verifying your paid adoption expenses and estimating the overall cost for your current adoption; 3) writing and delivering (including postage) your case-specific adoption expense information to the fund(s) or foundation(s) you applied to; 4) generating a home study summary (if applicable); 5) ongoing communication with grant provider(s) regarding your adoption progress and paid and estimated expenses; 6) tracking and applying your grant funds to the specific adoption fees and travel related expenses; and 7) accounting reconciliation and coordinating with the fund(s) or foundation(s) to determine how best to disburse excess funds if necessary. These services will be provided for all the grants that you receive throughout your adoption process.

NOTE: Financial contributions from your relatives, friends, churches or other related parties toward your adoption is not tax deductible according to the IRS rules.
