

Taiwan Adoption Expenses by Chronology

For Families in FL, GA, KY, TX & WY

The cost of your Taiwan adoption will consist of both CCAI Service Fees and expenses paid to outside agencies for their services. 1. The IAAME (Intercountry Adoption Accreditation and Maintenance Entity) is the newly authorized accrediting entity. They charge $500 per approved application where CCAI agrees to serve as the primary provider. (This fee is charged on a per child basis, if a family is adopting more than one child, IAAME will collect an additional $500 per child at the time of referral.)
2. The USCIS (United States Citizenship and Immigration Services) charges $775 at the time that you file the I-600A. Each person 17 years old or older in the household must be fingerprinted. $85 for each person to be fingerprinted should be included in the initial USCIS check or money order. The USCIS approval is valid for 18 months.
 The cost of your home study is included in CCAI's First Agency Fee. **
3. The cost of dossier preparation varies depending on what your state charges for issuing birth and marriage certificates and for document authentication. The cost of documentation notarization may also vary depending on the notary. Each family has approximately 10 authenticated documents in their dossier. The $300 estimate reflects the average that families will spend compiling the adoption dossier.

6. Average in-Taiwan travel expenses are approximately $725 - $2,250 for two adults and the adopted child. This covers in-Taiwan travel (ground transportation), as well as hotel costs. The adoption trip/s usually takes one week, per trip, for a one or two trip process.

8. Your child's visa to enter the US will cost $300 and is paid by the orphanage.
