

Adoption Expenses by Chronology

The total cost of your China adoption will consist of CCAI Fees and expenses outside of CCAI Program Fees. One of the many benefits of CCAI's China adoption program is that the costs are clearly defined from the moment you begin your adoption journey. The adoption fees and costs are spread out over the course of the entire adoption process. Expenses paid to CCAI throughout the adoption (highlighted in BOLD below) will be about one-third of the overall adoption expenses. Below we have listed each expense necessary to complete your adoption, to whom it is paid, and when it is due. Each expense is identified by the Key and detailed in "Explanation of Non-CCAI Expenses."

Due to unpredictable wait times, you may need to re-file your immigration application, which includes a new I-800A form or Supplement 3, re-fingerprinting and a home study update. The overall cost to re-file can be an additional $900 plus home study update fee.

² Home study and post adoption fees can vary greatly; a home study is generally between $1000 - $3000 and post adoption fees are generally between $150 - $500 per report. Please visit <https://www.ccaifamily.org/Application/Default.aspx> for specific examples of home study and post adoption fees for your state.

Financial Aid Application(s) & Administrative Assistance

CCAI is happy to support your family if you choose to seek financial aid through grant(s) to fund your adoption. Once you have researched and selected a grant organization that you would like to apply to, CCAI will provide assistance in compiling requested agency documentation for as many grants as you choose to apply for throughout your adoption process. CCAI will provide the following services to you at no additional fee: 1) initially analyzing and verifying your adoption case position and stage in the adoption process; 2) verifying your paid adoption expenses and estimating the overall cost for your current adoption; 3) writing and delivering (including postage) your case-specific adoption expense information to the fund(s) or foundation(s) you applied to; 4) generating a home study summary (if applicable); 5) ongoing communication with grant provider(s) regarding your adoption progress and paid and estimated expenses; 6) tracking and applying your grant funds to the specific adoption fees and travel related expenses; and 7) accounting reconciliation and coordinating with the fund(s) or foundation(s) to determine how best to disburse excess funds if necessary. These services will be provided for all the grants that you receive throughout your adoption process.

NOTE: Financial contribution from your relatives, friends, churches or other related parties toward your adoption is not tax deductible according to the IRS rules.
