

Bulgaria Adoption Expenses by Chronology

For Families in Colorado

The total cost of your Bulgaria adoption will consist of both CCAI Service Fees and expenses outside of CCAI Service Fees. One of the many benefits of CCAI's Bulgaria adoption program is that the costs are clearly defined from the moment you begin your adoption journey. The adoption fees and costs are spread out over the course of the entire adoption process. Expenses paid to CCAI throughout the adoption (highlighted in BOLD below) will be about one-fourth or less of the overall adoption expenses.

Below we have listed each expense necessary to complete your adoption in two trips, to whom it is paid, and when it is due. Each expense is identified by the Key and detailed in "Explanation of Non-CCAI Expenses."

Explanation of Non-CCAI Bulgaria Adoption Expenses For Families in Colorado

1. The State of Colorado requires that all adoptive families undergo a Child Abuse Record search at a cost of $35 for two adults. Families complete and submit the State of Colorado “Background Inquiry Form” to CCAI with their Application for Adoption.
2. The IAAME (Intercountry Adoption Accreditation and Maintenance Entity) is CCAI’s authorized accrediting entity. They charge $850 per approved application where CCAI agrees to serve as the primary provider. (This fee is charged on a per child basis; if a family is adopting more than one child, IAAME will collect an additional $850 per child at the time of referral.)
3. Lutheran family Services is the Colorado Department of Human Services contractor who must approve all Colorado home studies before they are sent to the USCIS. They charge $250 for this required review.
4. The USCIS (United States Citizenship and Immigration Services) charges $775 at the time that you file the I-800A. Each person 17 years old or older in the household must be fingerprinted. $85 for each person to be fingerprinted should be included in the initial USCIS check/Credit card. The USCIS approval is valid for 15 months. Please remember that Bulgaria adoption timelines are variable and are subject to change. Due to unpredictable wait times, you may need to re-file your immigration application, which includes a new I-800A form or Supplement 3, re-fingerprinting, and a home study update, along with translation/processing service fees to submit to the Ministry of Justice. The overall cost for each re-filing can be an additional $800-$2,500 plus 300-400 Euro*.
5. The cost of dossier preparation varies depending on what your state charges for issuing birth and marriage certificates and for document certification. CCAI notarizes documents for Colorado families at no charge. The $360 estimate reflects the average that families will spend compiling the adoption dossier. (Bulgaria may also require updated FBI and medical certificates prior to adoption finalization; this cost will vary.)
6. The in-country service fee ranges from €6600 to €8000* (Euros) for one child (plus up to 3 wire fees of $40 each).
 - a) For multiple placements, an additional €1000 to €2600* (Euros) will apply for services provided for each additional child’s adoption case
 - b) Fees are paid in 3 payments – at dossier submission, referral acceptance, and after adoption finalization. If adopting a waiting child, the payment schedule may differ.
