

Taiwan Adoption Expenses by Chronology

For Families in Colorado

The cost of your Taiwan adoption will consist of both CCAI Service Fees and expenses paid to outside agencies for their services. One of the many benefits of CCAI's Taiwan adoption program is that the costs are clearly defined from the moment you begin your adoption journey. The adoption fees and costs are spread out over the course of the entire adoption process. Expenses paid to CCAI throughout the adoption (highlighted in BOLD below) will be about one-third of the overall adoption expenses. Below we have listed each expense necessary to complete your adoption, to whom it is paid, and when it is due. Each expense is identified by the Key and detailed in "Explanation of Non-CCAI Expenses".

Explanation of Non-CCAI Adoption Expenses For Families in Colorado

1. The State of Colorado requires that all adoptive families undergo a Child Abuse Record search at a cost of $35 per couple. Families complete and submit the State of Colorado “Background Inquiry Form” to CDHS with a check for $35 payable to “CDHS”.
2. The State of Colorado requires that all adoptive families be fingerprinted thru CBI and FBI for the home study. This is required of each person in the home, age 17 or older and the cost is $39.50 per person. CCAI will provide the family with the necessary fingerprint cards once the application is approved.
 The cost of your home study is included in CCAI’s First Agency Fee. **
3. The IAAME (Intercountry Adoption Accreditation and Maintenance Entity) is the authorized accrediting entity. They charge $850 per approved application where CCAI agrees to serve as the primary provider. (This fee is charged on a per child basis, if a family is adopting more than one child, IAAME will collect an additional $850 per child at the time of referral.)
4. Lutheran Family Services is the Colorado Department of Human Services contractor who must approve all Colorado home studies prior to submission to USCIS. The fee for this review and approval is $170.
5. The USCIS (United States Citizenship and Immigration Services) charges $775 at the time that you file the I-600A. Each person 17 years old or older in the household must be fingerprinted. $85 for each person to be fingerprinted should be included in the initial USCIS check or money order. The USCIS approval is valid for 18 months.
6. The cost of dossier preparation varies depending on what your state charges for issuing birth and marriage certificates and for document authentication. The cost of documentation notarization may also vary depending on the notary. Each family has approximately 10 authenticated documents in their dossier. The $300 estimate reflects the average that families will spend compiling the adoption dossier.
7. The Cathwel (In-Country) fee is $6,230 (wiring fee included) per child. If a family is adopting a sibling group and one or more of the children hold a disability card, the per child fee may be less.
8. Airfare to Taiwan may range from $1,200 - $1,500 per adult traveler for coach accommodations based on flights from your home airport during regular season travel. For children over two years old at time of travel, a “full one-way ticket” (generally 75% of the price of adult ticket) is required.
9. Average in-Taiwan travel expenses are approximately $725 - $2,250 for two adults and the adopted child. This covers in-Taiwan travel (ground transportation), as well as hotel costs. The adoption trip/s usually takes one week, per trip, for a one or two trip process.
10. There may be an additional cost for a Taiwan driver/representative if a family chooses to be driven.
11. Your child’s visa to enter the US is $300 and will be paid by the orphanage.
12. The adoption will need to be validated after you return to Colorado at a cost of $167.
13. Your child will need a state-issued birth certificate issued by the State of Colorado. The cost is $37.75.
